Wrinkles

Around the Eyes

Are usually caused by defective sight. Many women, and likewise men, look prematurely old from these wrinkles. The wrinkles in many cases can be removed by wearing correctly fitted glasses. To fit glasses correctly demands a thorough knowledge of refraction and the necessary instruments. We have both: hundreds of satisfied customers will say so.

WASHINGTON GOSSIP.

Movement of Troops to the Southern Winter Camps.

Special to THE TELEGRAM.

Washington, D. C., Nov. 8.—At the War Department it was stated yesterday that the departure of General Lee for Savannah would be followed by a rapid movement of the troops from the North for the winter camps in the South. Secretary Alger did not go home to vote in the election in his State, and was seen yesterday at the War Department.

He stated that it would only be a short time before Camp Meade is entirely abandoned. Tomorrow the Connecticut troops will start for the Camp at Summerville, S. C., and on Friday the 201st New York regiment will be sent to the winter camp at Spartanburg, S. C. Some of the Pennsylvania troops, according to the Secretary will be sent to the camp at Summerville, while others will be sent to Athens, Georgia. Troops will begin to move from Lexington, Ky., and from Knoxville, within a few days. It was reported at the War Department yesterday that the Second West Virginia regiment is prepared to move South, and will leave Harrisburg, Pa., Sunday afternoon for Greenville, S. C.

Secretary Alger said that the work of mustering out the Third Virginia regiment would be followed within a few days by the mustering out of the Second Virginia. Quite a number of the Third Virginia passed through Washington city yesterday.

The question of a National Department of Health is being discussed by the Southern Press, and is attracting much attention among Southern people coming to Washington. It is thought that a bill will be prepared and presented to Congress for the establishment of such a Board of Health. Physicians from the states of N. Carolina, S. Carolina, Mississippi, Florida, as a rule endorse the suggestion. At the Marine hospital service in this city, which now, to some extent takes the place of a national board of health, while the surgeons and assistant surgeons are not fully prepared to endorse the suggestion, yet they believe that it is one worthy of consideration by the press, especially in the south. In the absence of the national board they think it would prove advantageous for the southern states to have each a board of health. At present many of the states do not have a board that is an independent board of health not connected with any other department of the state government. The officials seem to favor the Florida plan, and think it would be well for the physicians of other southern states to study the system in vogue in that state.

The interest manifested yesterday in the result of the balloting in the different states was very great. In the executive departments but little business was done, and everywhere that men met the political situation was the sole topic of discussion. Very few clerks, or officials, from the war, navy and state departments went home to vote. With the exception of Assistant Secretary of War Meikeljohn, who votes in Nebraska, not a single official from either of these three great departments of the government went home to vote. It is said that Secretary Hay does not claim a residence in any state, but claims his home in the District of Columbia. Secretary Alger was prevented from going to Michigan on the account of pressure of business—it is whispered that the true reason Alger did not go home to vote was because he is not over-anxious for the success of Pingreeism in his state. Secretary Long, of the navy department did not deem it worth while to go home, as Massachusetts in any event was sure to give an overwhelming republican majority for the State ticket and the congressional district in which the Secretary votes is also heavily republican.

Col. Harries of the District of Columbia National Guard, and a volunteer in the Spanish war, who spent several weeks at Asheville, N. C., on account of his health, is rapidly improving, and his doctor thinks he will be all right in a short time.

Among North Carolina people in Washington yesterday were J. H. Southgate; T. J. Ogburn, Summerville, and M. H, Pride, Mt. Holly.

Greensboro Juniors vs Reidsville.

The Greensboro Junior Foot-ball team left at noon today for Reidsville, to play the team there this afternoon. The Juniors here have some good material, and if well practiced would do some dood playing, but they have a very unfair show today, as two of their men have never been in the line-up of this team, However, we expect to hear that they won over Reidsville today.

OLD NORTH STATE FOREVER.

The News Makes Everybody Feel Comfortable.

GUILFORD COUNTY'S GREAT GAIN

"Carolina, Carolina, Heaven's Blessings Attend Her"—The Returns Indicate the Truth of It.

As foreshadowed in the Telegram Extra this morning, the grand old state of North Carolina stands once more in the white man's column. The indications are that the judicial ticket is a winner to the tune of twenty to thirty thousand majority. Great gains were made every where heard from, and this fact warrants the belief that the majority is something to be proud of. Definite news today comes in slow—waiting for official returns.

The legislature is safely democratic in both branches by a good working majority, if indeed, the majority is not overwhelming.

Kitchin is elected to congress by about two thousand, while Brooks for solicitor carries the district by possibly two thousand five hundred. This is all good news and highly satisfactory to all lovers of good government.

While many counties in the state have simply outdone themselves, Old Guilford asks you to take one good, square look at her.

John Wilson is elected to the Senate by 1111 majority, Kennett and Bunch to the House by a few votes less, while the lowest men on the ticket are above 800. and that where there was tremendous efforts made to defeat them. These were the candidates for clerk and sheriff.

For the office of sheriff J. Henry Gilmer made a gain of about 1,500 votes over the democratic vote of two years ago.

A dispatch from Wilmington today says Davis is elected to the senate from New Hanover by 1,000 majority.

A despatch to Judge J. G. Bynum from Morganton says: The returns show Burke county to be democratic by one hundred majority.

Hon. Theo. F. Klutz will represent the Seventh district in Congress, being elected by considerably more than three thousand majority. Rowan county alone gives him in the neighborhood of 1,400.

A Novel Mouse Nest.

Mr. R. G. Burgess brought to the Telegram office yesterday the most peculiar mouse nest it has ever been our lot to see. The nest was made of a sweet potato, nicely hollowed out by the sharp teeth of a mother mouse and was neatly lined with strings and straw. The potato was about three and one half inches in diameter and what was left of it was perfectly sound. In the nest were nine tiny mice who had not yet learned to crawl and they were a pretty but far from lovable crowd.

The nest was found in Mr. Burgess' pantry by a colored servant who, being a female, raised the unearthly yell that is inevitable when a woman and mouse discover each other in the same house.

Mr. Burgess offered us the nest, mice and all as a present but the Telegram doesn't own a cat.

The Turks Appeal.

By Cable to THE TELEGRAM.

Constantinople, Nov. 9—England, France and Italy have accepted Russia's proposal to appoint Prince George, of Greece, high commissioner of the powers for the Island of Crete. The Turkish government has appealed and Germany and Austria are against the proposal, but the appeal has been ineffectual.

Death of Sarah Reed.

Emory College, Oxford, Nov. 8—The home of Professor and Mrs. M. T. Reed is saddened by the death of their little five year old daughter, Sarah. The burial took place yesterday afternoon at Oxford.

Train Hand Badly Hurt.

Lyons, Nov. 8.—Mr. Ed. McDaniel, a flagman on the Georgia and Alabama road, was tripped up at Alamo yesterday by the air brake catching in his overalls and throwiag him across the track. One car passed over his ankle, crushing it badly. It may be necessary to amputate his leg.

RENDERED THANKS.

Pretty and Good Natured Speeches at the Court House.

About noon today the court house was filled with ardent and enthusiastic people to hear the candidates, both the successful ones and the defeated ones, thank the people for "what they had done for them."

The first in order was Joel Henry Gilmer, who briefly thanked the people for the splendid vote given him for the office of sheriff. His opponent Sheriff Hoskins, was absent. The came Mr. Nelson, for clerk. His opponent, Clerk Ragan, was absent. Then Mr. G. H. McKinney thanked the people and his opponent, Mr. Hodgin, was absent. (We do not mean to say these gentlemen were absent intentionally. We just note the fact that they were not there.)

Register of Deeds Kirkman made a neat speech thanking his friends for their suffrage, and was followed by his defeated opponent, Mr. Stratford, who spoke in graceful manner of the good feeling he had for all concerned.

Messrs. Wilson, Kennett and Bunch made short speeches and were followed by Messrs. Douglas and Forbis (Mr. Bradshaw was absent). Mr. Douglas' speech was full of good humor and wit and was much enjoyed.

But the crowning feature of the occasion was when Capt. Forbis thanked the people for their support and closed by saying: "What are we to do? The best thing I can see is to get in the middle of the road and go home," meaning back to the democratic party. This was received with thunderous applause. As Capt. Forbis left the stand Mr. Wilson called: "Capt. Forbis, let me welcome you home," and the two men clasped hands. Mr. Wilson then made a short, but eloquent speech of thanks.

A. L. Brooks was loudly called for, and not being present, Mayor Taylor was called and responded in his usual happy vein. As he closed Mr. Brooks the successful candidate for solicitor entered the room and was tendered an ovation. He spoke as you all know he can speak, for a few minutes and was cheered to the echo. The meeting lasted about an hour and was a veritable love feast.

However, before Mayor Taylor's speech Chairman A. M. Scales was called, and the audience to a man cheered him as an army would the gallant hero of a hard battle. By the way, Mr. Scales is the hero of this fight and the people recognize it. He came forward and spoke of the victory, reading from the returns that the whole ticket is elected, the legislative by 1100 majority and the lowest man on the county ticket by over 800.

Academy Tomorrow Night.

The sale of reserved seats for Leonzo Bros Big New York company, commenced this morning at Gardner's drugstore. Thus far many tickets have been sold, and the indications point to a packed house. This attraction will commence a three nights engagement at the Academy of Music tomorrow, Thursday night, opening in the great comedy success, "Brother against Brother." Yesterday's Danville Register speaks in the highest terms of the company, where they are playing the first half of the week. Remember the prices are 15, 25 and 35c. Ladies will be admitted free to the opening performance if accompanied by a person holding a paid 35c ticket, which positively must be purchased before 7 p. m. of that date.

The Chrysanthemum Show.

While you are feasting your eyes upon the loveliest collection of flowers you will look upon this fall, you can also enjoy a feast of good things to eat, for the ladies have provided bountifully such things as appeal to the appetite of man. Just see what you can get for snch reasonable prices as will astonish you: Turkey, chicken salad, oysters—fried or stewed—ham, baked chicken, cranberry sauce, celery, ices and cake in great variety, with other things too numerous to mention.

Business men will find Hagan's Auditorium a most convenient place to drop into for dinner, supper or luncheon on Thursday and Friday.

Vow.

In her heart love and duty strove for mastery, and duty won.
"No man shall wed me," she exclaimed, with suffused eyes and quivering lips, "who does not promise me that if he is ever President of the United States he will use his influence to have battle-ships christened with water!"
Such was the ardor of his passion, that Algeron hesitated not a moment
"I promise," he cried, and fell upon his knees.—Detroit Journal.

Thomas Post, president of the Post Glass Manufacturing Company, at Muncie, Ind., was killed yesterday by being struck with a locomotive.

BOTH SIDES CLAIM HOUSE.

Republicans Sustain Losses in New York,

NOT A NATIONAL LANDSLIDE.

Roosevelt is Most Probably Elected Governor of New York—Effects of The Quay Scandal.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

New York, Nov. 9.—The last returns indicate that Roosevelt carries the state by sixteen thousand.

Washington, Nov. 9.—In the strength displayed by the democrats throughout the nation, from New York to the West, resulting in overcoming the republican majority of the lower house, there was a tearing down of the republican pluralities.

Republican strongholds in the western states, especially, showed democratic gains in districts through which the president passed on his speech-making tour to Omaha.

In Nebraska the fusion governor is elected and three democratic and republican congressmen. In the southeast, where the president retained gold democrats in office democratic delegates are elected to congress. New Mexico, Arizona and Ohio elected their usual quota, sixteen republicans and five democratic congressmen.

In Pennsylvania, where the Quay scandals were expected to overthrow the republican machine, the state went overwhelmingly republican, electing twenty-one republican and eight democratic congressmen.

NEXT HOUSE REPUBLICAN.

New York, Nov. 9.—The Evening Sun says the next House will be safely republican, though the present majority of fifty-five over all will be greatly reduced. The republicans have lost in New York and Illinois, but have gained chiefly in Nebraska, Kansas and California. The democrats claim the House by a small majority.

New York, Nov. 9—Richard Croker says he has not given up hope yet of Van Wyck's election, but that he still pins his faith to later returns. Chauncey Depew and General Howard Woodford are spoken of as leading senatorial candidates.

CHAIRMAN'S ESTIMATES.

Washington, Nov. 9.—Babcock, of the rebublican congressional committee says his estimates to noon today, indicate at the very least a majority of twenty-five or thirty in congress.

Secretary Kerr, of the democratic congressional committee, says his latest figures indicate thirteen majority in congress, over all.

MASSACHUSETTS.

Boston, Nov. 9.—Walcott's plurality is eighty thousand.

RHODE ISLAND.

Providence, Nov. 9.—Republican congressmen are elected.

CONNECTICUT.

New Haven, Nov. 9.—State officers, legislature and congressmen are republican.

OHIO.

Columbus, Nov. 9.—Republican plurality sixty thousand, more than double Bushnell. As republicans have historically lost in "off years," McKinley is the first president to get the endorsement of the state in "off year." The republicans have returned as many congressmen as in a presidential year.

PENNSYLVANIA.

Philadelphia, Nov.—Davenport will probably go to congress to succeed the republican from the Twelfth district. The other districts are unchanged.

DELAWARE.

Wilmington, Nov. 9—The Delaware legislature is republican and will elect a senator to succed Senator Gray.

NEVADA.

Carson, Nov. 9—Republican governor elected by small majority.

COLORADO.

Denver, Nov. 9—Democratic, populist and republican fusion ticket carry the the state by sixty thousand, electing democratic and silver republican congressmen. The legislature is anti-republican.

IDAHO.

Boise, Nov. 9—Women voted for the first time. Party lines were ignored and the result is doubtful.

CALIFORNIA.

San Francisco, Nov. 9—Republicans have everything, and will elect a republican to succeed Senator White. They get six out of seven congressmen.

WASHINGTON.

Seattle, Nov. 9—The republicans made heavy gains.

GRAND DEMOCRATIC RALLY

Tonight At the Academy of Music.

Beautiful Jim Key, the celebrated democratic educated horse, whose reputation in the north as an unchangeable democrat is well known and who has made such a sensation here that even Mayor Taylor, with many of our most prominent men, urge the people in a signed testimonial to go and see this marvellous performance of Beautiful Jim Key, who predicted at Raleigh, Winston and here the great victory achieved yesterday, expects to entertain a crowded house of good democrats who want to hear something about their newly-elected officials and who want to give vent to their enthusiasm by cheering for a democratic horse and the success of the great landslide. So be sure and be on hand at eight o'clock, if you want to have a good time and at the same time see the most wonderful and astonishing performance you ever witnessed in your life.

Wesley Returns to Knoxville.

Lieut. Dave Gilmer, and private Wesley Smith, of the third regiment, returned to Knoxville this morning, after spending ten day furloughs at home. Dave travelled in a sleeper, but Wesley took especial pains not to get in one of those "bed cars" as he called them. Wesley was very much supprized at the result of the election. "Confactothebusiness," he said, 'cordin' to dat "lunification" de dimocrats gwine take every thing. And ef I'd a knowed dat de dimocrats gwine do dat, I would not have come home.

SIMMONS AND SCALES.

The brilliant victory just won at the polls in North Carolina is the people's victory. Its achievement is due in a large measure to the individual efforts of thousands of the state's most patriotic citizens: but in according the praise Chairman Simmons should not be forgotten. By his aggressiveness, nerve, sagacity, watchfulness and keen foresight, it is but just to say, he has made this great victory possible and that without his good judgment, wisdom and splendid management the victory would not have been so complete.

And in Guilford county, where the result is most marvellous, Chairman Scales is the hero. As in the case of Mr. Simmons, for many weeks he has neglected his business, and with a devotion born of true American patriotism, he has labored incessantly, directing the fight for democratic supremacy. To his wise leadership, more than to the personal efforts of any one candidate, is due the credit and praise for the victory.

To both of these gentlemen we take off our hat. Most nobly, bravely and unselfishly have they fought, and they have just cause to feel proud of the brilliant victory won.

Since the establishment of the Telegram it has stood for conservatism, decency and reform. In politics it stood for a straight fight for principle. That idea prevailed among the leaders, and the great democratic party entered the fight unhampered by any sort of trade or dicker. There was no such thing as an unholy swap of candidates for office. The wisdom of the policy adopted was proven on yesterday beyond all peradventure.

Like the Spanish cruiser which was raised from the waters of southern Cuba only to perish in a more fierce and terrific storm in the Bahamas, the republican party of North Carolina was pretty well shot to pieces in 1876, but recently raised to the surface, was yesterday sunk again by the terrible battle of ballots waged by the indignant and outraged decency of the state.

We expect that Mr. Bradshaw, if he could calmly sit down today and let his mind revert to the good old days when he was a democrat in "good and regular standing," would wish that he had stayed in the party that for several years honored him with a fat office.

There is "retribution in history," as sure as a Spanish gunner can't shoot, and John C. Kennett, the returns say, will go to the legislature this time by several hundred times the fraudulent majority of his opponent two years ago.

The Telegram does not claim the credit for any of Guilford's big victory, but it takes off its hat and says it is glad that in this, its first year, the democratic majority was a record breaker.

Wonder what Colonel Boyd now thinks of the "old white liners?" We predict that he will not make another speech on that subject in many, many years.

Candidate Douglas' majority began shrinking yesterday morning at sunrise, and at sundown last evening, it was entirely "out o sight."

Wonder if Mr. Stratford's "interest in common" with the republican party will cause him to sympathize very deeply with Messrs. Hoskins and Ragan?

In the race which terminated yesterday at sunset the white horse passed under the wire and won the race, while the black horse got—distance!

In the classic language of Ole Bre'r Fox, when he had Bre'r Rabbit stuck fast to the tar baby: "Mawnin', Mister 'Publican, how is you dis mawnin'?"

LIEUT. HOBSON MOURNS.

The Loss of Admiral Cervera's Flagship.

The saddest man in New York City yesterday was Lieut. Richmond Pearson Hobson, United States navy, the hero of the Merrimac.

The lieutenant had read in the newspapers of the loss at sea of the cruiser Maria Teresa, Admiral Cervera's flagship. It was Lieut. Hobson who had first suggested to the navy department the advisability of saving the warship. His plans had been accepted and had proved to be successful.

When the lieutenant read that the ship he had hoped to add to the American navy had been lost during a heavy storm he could scarcely be consoled.

Lieut. Hobson paid several visits to the army and navy club, in West Thirty-first street yesterday. The members of the club, who have learned to worship the Merrimac hero, tried to cheer him. But their efforts were useless.

"What can I say?" said the lieutenant when seen by a reporter. "The Maria Teresa is at the bottom of the sea and there is absolutely no hope of recovering her. I wish I had been aboard at the time she encountered that gale, I have no doubt that every thing possible was done to save this splendid ship to our navy.

"I would rather have seen any of the big ships of our service lost than the flagship of Admiral Cervera. But I suppose it is all over now so for as the rest of the Spanish ships we destroyed are concerned. I don't know whether an effort will be made to save any of the other ships of that fleet.

"When the Maria Teresa started from Caimanera Bay, on October 26th last, I was assured that the vessel was perfectly seaworthy. I supposed that she was in good condition to face any storm. But the bombardment to which she was subjected at the hands of our gunners must have weakened her."

Lieut. Hobson said he could not tell how long he would remain in the city. He said that as far as he knew he would not return to Santiago in the near future.—New York World.

"After the Ball" Notes.

Ed. Ragan spent Sunday in High Point, and must have done a little political work, for when he returned to Greensboro that night he was much encouraged and told some gentlemen at the McAdoo that if he wasn't elected by 450 majority he was the biggest liar in North Carolina. Ed. spent yesterday in High Point again, and when he returned last night was addressed by many as "the biggest liar in North Carolina." No, Eddie, we believe you were mistaken. There are other liars in the Old North State.

Will Ragan got one vote yesterday for the House. Will wasn't a candidate, and said this morning when making fun of the big democratic majority, "I'm darn glad I wasn't."

John A. Hodgin received a number of democratic votes—but McKinney received some republican votes also.

Will Ragan said this morning: "I told Ed. he was running one time too many." This doesn't exactly tally with what Will was saying a few days ago, but then you know he could have told Ed. lots of things that no one else would hear.

Of all the defeated candidates Ed. Ragan wears the most smiling countenance today, with Bobby Douglas holding him a good second. With the rest there is no attempt at a smile. Stratford is probably the most down hearted and Bradshaw must also feel exceedingly gloomy today. Hoskins is perhaps one of the sorest men in the state. It is the general opinion that the ex-sheriff has spent lots of money in this campaign and just think of it—not a dollar of the filthy lucre will ever come back. The way of some Joseph's seems hard. But Governor Russell said it: "There is retribution in history:" and Joseph should have taken notice.

NOTES FROM HIGH POINT.

The Local News From Our Neighbor Briefly Told.

TELEGRAM BUREAU.
HIGH POINT, N. C. Nov. 9

The election here yesterday passed off without the slightest disturbance of any kind. Everybody worked hard except a few whites and a few colored who went hunting. Almost everybody seemed to be in the best of humor. In fact there was not as much disturbance as often occurs on days of not half so large a crowd.

The republicans here yesterday used exceedingly long and loud tickets, today they are wearing long and loud faces. It cost twenty-five cents a shave for republicans today. That is too bad after defeat.

The regular monthly meeting of the Board of Alderman was held Monday night, in the mayors office, and business transacted as follows; the request of Mrs. P. E. Jarrell to have the value of the Hotel property reduced from $6000 to $5000, on motion was granted.

Resolved that any person or persons convicted of beating, or unlawfully riding on any freight or passenger train, within the city limits, shall be fined to not exceed $5 and cost for each offiense.

Further Resolved, that all persons are hereby prohibited from loafing or congregating around the waiting rooms, or yard of the Southern railway depot or around the freight depot sheds or tracks of said company. Any person convicted of the above offense shall be fined not to exceed $5.00 and costs for each offense. F. N. Tate, who has recently been promoted to the agency of the Southern depot at Charlotte and who will leave for that place tomorrow, of course cannot act any longer, tendered his resignation as a member of the board of aldermen and board of school commissioners. The board accepted his resignation and adjourned to meet next Monday evening for the purpose of filling the vacancy caused by Mr. Tate's resignation on both boards.

W. P. Ragan received one vote here yesterday from some prohibition friend. "Bill" ought to have given it to "Ed." "Bill" was not running until the returns began coming in.

An umbrella man struck a crowd of republicans at the polls below the railroad yesterday and as he could not vote, he suddenly disappeared. Poor fellow.

We cannot help but feel sorry for that young man who has always voted the democratic ticket and who was at the polls yesterday working for two republican candidates who promised him a job, but who will have to hunt themselves a job soon. Possibly one of them can give him a job "back on the farm."

The truth is what hurts, or that seems to have been the case yesterday when we posted on the bulletin board the account of a conversation between a democrat and a republican that took place in the waiting room Sunday night, the account of which appeared in our column on Monday.

Late to bed and early to rise, prepares a man for his home in the skies. But early to bed and a Little Early Riser, the pill that makes life longer and better and wiser. Howard Gardner.

Joseph Jefferson is still confined to his room at the Holland House, New York, and will not act for at least a week.

A Sure Sign of Croup.

Hoarseness in a child that is subject to croup is a sure indication of the approach of the desease. If Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is given as soon as the child becomes hoarse, or even after the croupy cough has appeared, it will prevent the attack. Many mothers who have croupy children always keep this remedy at hand and finds that it saves them much trouble and worry. It can always be depended upon and is pleasant to take. For sale by, C. E. Holton.

Notice to Exhibitors.

All persons intending to exhibit plants at the Chrysanthemum Show are urged to send them to Hagan's Auditorium by 12 o'clock Wednesday. Cut flowers will be received up to 9 o'clock Thursday morning.

Henry B. Hyde, who gets $100,000 a year as president of the Equitable Life Assurance Society, of New York, is critically ill.

Discovered by a Woman

Another great discovery has been made, and that too, by a lady in this country. Disease fastened its clutches upon her and for seven years she withstood its severest tests, but her vital organs were undermined and death seemed imminent. For three months she coughed incessantly, and could not sleep. She finally discovered a way to recovery by purchasing of us a bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption, and was so much relieved on taking first dose that she slept all night; and with two bottles has been absolutely cured. Her name is Mrs. Luther Lutz." Thus writes W. C. Hammick & Co., of Shelby, N. C. Trial bottles free at C. E. Holton's drug store. Regular size 50 cents and $1.00. Every bottle guaranteed.

The Greensboro Library.

There will be a meeting of the subscribers to the Greensboro library, in the court house, Tuesday evening Nov. 15th at 7:30 o'clock, for the purpose of effecting a permanent organization. All subscribers and all others interested in the establishment of this much needed institution, are cordially invited and urged to be present. Brief addresses will be made by a number of prominent citizens.

Yellow Jaundice Cured

Suffering humanity should be supplied with ezery means possible for its relief. It is with pleasure we publish the following: "This is to certify that I was a terrible sufferer from yellow jaundice for over six months, and was treated by some of the best physicians in our city and all to no avail. Dr. Bell, our druggist, recommended Electric Bitters; and after taking two bottles I was entirely cured. I now take great pleasure in recommending them to any person suffering from this terrible malady. I am gratefully yours. M. A. Hogarty, Lexington, Ky." Sold by C. . Holton, druggist.

Thanks For The Victory.

To the officers and members of the High Point township Democratic club.

Glory to God who giveth us the victory.

Your humble servant congratulates you on the glorious victory you have achieved. I am led to believe that your zeal and patriotism has not only been felt in our township, but has had an influence throughout our county and state. Let not your zeal flag or grow less, but let us remember that vigilance is the price of liberty. While we rejoice in our triumph, let us be ever mindful not to wound in the least those who saw fit to differ with us, and now to the ladies of the democratic club and all others, be praised for their help in our glorious cause.

"May Heavens blessings attend them,
While we live we will cherish, protect and defend them.
Hurrah! Hurrah! for the Old North State forever."

"A MODEL OFFICE BOY."

Beautiful Jim Key's Performance Last Night.

The performance of "Beautiful Jim Key" at the Academy last night was just as advertised, and Jim fully sustained his reputation for being the most wonderful piece of horse flesh in the world. He added, subtracted, multiplied and divided without making a single mistake. For instance: when 3 multiplied by 4, minus 6, was called for Jim walked to the rack and brought back the figure 6. He took letters from box 18 and opened drawer D, and put them there. When he took a silver dollar from a jar of water without drinking a drop, and got his mouth wet he walked over to his little trunk, opened it, took out a towel and carried it to his master who dried his mouth for him.

The most amusing thing Jim did was to play lame when he learned that his master, of whom he is very fond, was about to trade him. When the would-be buyer was trying him, Jim limped badly and finally refused to go at all.

Jim is a living example of the wonders that can be wraught by patience and kindness. He has never had a whipping and is so fond of his master that that gentleman has to sleep with him. Dr. Key, an old colored man, nas spent eight years in training Jim and has accomplished what before seemed impossibilities. Jim met President McKinley at the Nashville exposition, but has never liked the President and is still a stanch democrat, though raised in a colored family.

CUBAN AND PORTO RICAN BONDS.

The Foreign Holders Making a Move to Protect Their Interests.

Washington, Nov. 8—The foreign bondholders have at last moved formally to protect their interests in Cuba and Porto Rico. The initial steps have been taken through the agency of the French embassy, which in this case acts no longer as the representative of the Spanish government, but for French subjects. Through the embassy a most formidable statement has been presented to the state department, being an account of the various Spanish bonds owned by French citizens, chargeable against the territories seized or set free by the act of the United States government.

The total sum of these bonds runs up far into the millions. Just what it is expected shall be done with them is not made clear. The United States, of course, will not pay them, but it may be that the French government looks to it to cause the independent government of Cuba to assume liabilities for the redemption of the bonds charged against that island when that government shall have been duly installed by the act of the United States government. It is probable that other holders of like bonds, German and British will take similar steps to have their claims brought through their diplomatic representatives to the attention of the United States government, and it may even be that the holders of such bonds in Spain, though Spanish citizens will take a like course, which would present a novel claim upon the generosity of the United States government.

From New Zealand.

Reefton, New Zealand, Nov. 23, 1896.

I am very pleased to state that since I took the agency of Chamberlain's medicines the sale has been very large, more especially of the Cough Remedy. In two years I have sold more of this particular remedy than of all other makes for the previous five years. As to its efficacy, I have been informed by scores of persons of the good result they have received from it, and know its value from the use of it in my own household. It is so pleasant to take that we have to place the bottle beyond the reach of the children.

Wonderful Success!

12 Wheels Sold at Auction, and I Am Satisfied.

All who bought wheels at the sale last Saturday night are more than satisfied.

On Saturday night, Nov. 19th, 1898, I will close out all of my stock of '98 wheels. My '99 stock will begin to come in on December 1st. I can then show you a dandy line of wheels.

A CARD.

I understand that a report is being circulated in the city to the effect that I have retired from the insurance business and I desire to announce to my friends and the public generally, that this report is UNTRUE.

I am still actively engaged in the

FIRE INSURANCE BUSINESS

And have recently associated with myself in the business Mr. S. H. Boyd. We can be found in our office, Room No. 6, KATZ BUILDING, at all times during business hours and will be glad to continue to serve our friends and the public.

We represent companies, whose SURPLUS aggregates more than $35,000,000, and we will meet all giving to all business intrusted to us, prompt and careful attention.

Thanking my friends for their liberal patronage in the past and asking a continuance of the same, I am Yours truly,

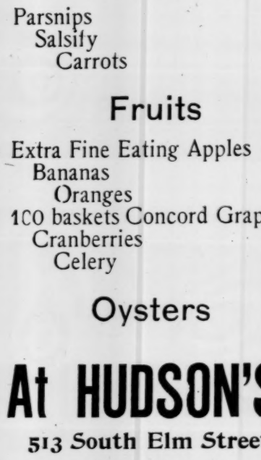
Ya Ho!

We Sail the Ocean Blue;
Our Saucy Ship's a beauty



Our pants are made double seat and double knee and are equal to the hard wear that the average good little boy will subject them to; besides, the seams are all taped and impossible to rip. The entire suit is made in the same durable manner, and the best guarantee that we can give you on these garments (as being the best) is that our reliable old friend, Mrs. Jane Hopkins, makes them. Ages 3 to 16. Prices $2.50 to $7,50.

BRIEF LOCAL MATTERS.

Lindau has a few prices in his ad today. Read it.

Two good houses are advertised today by Wharton & McAlister.

W. B. Pollard, of Winston, passed through at noon today, going off on 36.

Go to Hagan's Auditorium tomorrow and treat yourself to a first-class dinner, and the same time help a good cause.

The fourth quarterly conference will be held at Centenary church tonight at 7:30. All members are invited to be present.

A. G. Headen, of Pittsboro, who has been visiting the family of J. K. Wheeler, on Guilford avenue, left at noon today for Reidsville.

The Ladies' Aid Society of St. Barnabas church will meet with Mrs. W. B. Bogart tomorrow (Thursday) afternoon at four o'clock sharp.

"Beautiful Jim Key," the great democratic horse, will hold a democratic rally and jubilee tonight. If you want to know all about the election and have a good time go and see him.

The W. C. T. U. of South Greensboro meets tomorrow (Thursday) at 3 p. m. in Grace M. P. church. Election of officers and other important business to attend to. All urged to attend.

Any amount of jokes are being played on the defeated candidates today. This morning some one bought a bottle of Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup and mailed it to Sheriff Hoskins, who had not yet returned to the city from his home at Summerfield.

Capt. J. M. Burton, of Summerfield, came over last night to get the election returns and returned home today. The captain has done some effective work for democracy this year, and was one of those who worked especially for Gilmer and helped swell his majority.

Hagan's Auditorium is transformed into a veritable bower of beauty by the lovely collection of chrysanthemums, roses, and other beautiful flowers. It is sure worth the small admission fee charged to see so much beauty gathered in one spot. All this can be yours for only 10c for a single admission, and 25c for a season ticket, enabling you to see the display as often as you are inclined. Children under twelve can get tickets at 5c. Surely you will not miss it at these prices.

He Fought for His Cause,

If there is one man on the fusion side for whom a sympathetic heart goes out more than for anyone else, that man is C. P. Frazier. He was once a democrat and so far as known is the only one who joined the fusionists in this campaign. But the office of public administrator loomed up before him if he could elect Ed. Ragan. Mr. Frazier read that masterpiece of Halelujah Atmosphere, the populist handbook of facts, and with the office beckoning to him in front, he was converted. For two months he has worked as best he could to secure Ed's election, but yesterday the whole thing caflumaxed and the office is now several years, most probably forever, out of reach. But Mr. Frazier is not to blame, for he fought for the cause he thought held the office.

Insure Your Wheels.

In Dayton, O., there is a company which insures bicycles against theft. The charge is $1 per year. Each wheel is accurately described in the policy, and if stolen is promptly replaced with one quite as good. The company hunts down the thief, if possible, and sends him or her to the penitentiary.

Bucklen's Arnica Salve.

Cafe and Kandy Kitchen.

We asked one of our customers the other day if he didn't want to buy something in the way of woollen underwear. He replied, "You know those suits I bought of you." We said "Yes, but that was two years ago," to which he replied, "Yes, but they are all right yet, and I'm going to wear them again this winter." We are still selling this same line of underwear, positively the best winter underwear ever sold in this city at the remarkably low price of two dollars a suit, or one dollar each for shirt and drawers. Thacker & Brockmann's.

Cure a Cold in One Day.

Take Laxative Bromo Quinine Tablets. All druggists refund money if it fails to cure. 25c. The genuine has L. B. Q. on each tablet.

A Boy With a Hammer

could abuse a bath tub most shamefully in fifteen minutes. But there is another kind of abuse of the bath tub in which the bather instead of the tub is abused. There is a right and a wrong way to bathe. Ice cold baths are not best. Take one that is warm or tepid. Then by means of a shower reduce the temperature until it is cool, but not cold. If you have no shower bath the same results can be secured by the use of our Shower Bath Ring. The best bath tub appliance on the market, and only $2.00. Doesn't wet your hair.

The Social Standing

of most men is much higher than the sum of their income. To such men it must be good news to learn that they do not have to pinch themselves in order that they may pay the extravagant tailor's bills. We sell perfectly fitting clothes for business, semi-dress or full dress occasions of unquestionable style and superb qualities at prices which permit the saving of almost half tailor's bills. Our best clothes are made by the famous New York tailors, Messrs. Fecheimer, Fishel & Co., whose label on every garment is a guarantee that the clothes are equal to "custom made" in every particular. Therefore, whether it is a sack suit, a cutaway or a Prince Albert frock, a pair of trousers, a top coat or an overcoat that you need, do yourself the justice to at least see our offerings—and then go to your tailor if you like—but you won't.
